

LEGENDS CORNER

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS

OCT
23

GB vs WAS

PRESENTED BY: FAN CRUISE

THEME: 90TH ANNIV & ALUMNI HOMECOMING

WASHINGTON LEGENDS PARADE

During pregame on October 23rd the team hosted a Washington Legends parade around FedEx Way, featuring Washington Legends in double decker buses. Washington Alumni Cheerleaders, members of the Command Force and Marching Band joined the parade, which ended in Legends Plaza, located between stadium Gates F and G. After the parade concluded, fans enjoyed a celebration in Legends Plaza with the opportunity to meet Washington Legends.

WASHINGTON LEGENDS SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS HALFTIME HONORS

At halftime on October 23rd members of the three Super Bowl championship teams were honored with a special on-field tribute, accompanied by the Washington Alumni Cheerleaders and Command Force. During the ceremony, the Washington Legends were introduced by championship year on the field. There was also a special tribute to the 1937 and 1942 world championship teams. Additionally, a 90th Anniversary-themed tifo banner was opened on the 50-yard line section of the visitor's sideline.

LEGENDS CORNER

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS

OCT
23

GB vs WAS

PRESENTED BY: FAN CRUISE

THEME: 90TH ANNIV & ALUMNI HOMECOMING

DINNER FOR FORMER WASHINGTON RECEIVING CORPS “THE POSSE” AND CURRENT COMMANDERS RECEIVERS

On October 20th the Washington Commanders hosted a dinner for Washington Legends receivers “The Posse” (made up of Art Monk, Gary Clark, and Ricky Sanders) and the team’s current receivers group to share their experiences playing for Washington. Playing together in Washington from 1986-1992, “The Posse” helped lead Washington to two Super Bowl wins in 1987 and 1991.

SUPER BOWL QUARTERBACK PANEL

On October 20th the Washington Commanders hosted a one-of-a-kind Super Bowl quarterback panel discussion with Mark Rypien, Joe Theismann, and Doug Williams that was open to a select group of pre-invited guests.

LEGENDS CORNER

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS

OCT
23

GB vs WAS

PRESENTED BY: FAN CRUISE

THEME: 90TH ANNIV & ALUMNI HOMECOMING

“THE POSSE” AT WASHINGTON COMMANDERS PRACTICE

On October 21st Washington Legends “The Posse” (made up of Art Monk, Gary Clark, and Ricky Sanders) stopped by Commanders’ practice to meet with coaches and players. Playing together in Washington from 1986-1992, “The Posse” helped lead Washington to two Super Bowl wins in 1987 and 1991.

WASHINGTON LEGENDS COMMUNITY GARDEN BUILD

On October 22nd Washington Legends came together ahead of Sunday’s 90th Anniversary and Alumni Homecoming Game to work on a community service project, transforming an empty school yard into an engaging outdoor learning lab at Rocketship Prep Elementary Legacy School in Washington, D.C. The Legends planted flowers, built and painted treehouses with the help of Rocketship Prep students, and painted a book nook for outdoor book drop offs.

LEGENDS CORNER

WASHINGTON COMMANDERS

OCT
23

GB vs WAS

PRESENTED BY: FAN CRUISE

THEME: 90TH ANNIV & ALUMNI HOMECOMING

WASHINGTON LEGENDS RECEPTION DINNER

On October 22nd the Washington Commanders hosted a reception dinner at Taffer's Tavern in Washington D.C. for Washington Legends ahead of Sunday's 90th Anniversary and Alumni Homecoming game.

